

Frustration is normal, especially in an online class where we rely on technology.

If emailing back and forth with your instructor is not working, consider one of the following options:

1. A phone appointment with Dr. Wall
 - Make the appointment by email
2. Advice from a classmate
 - You can contact any classmate through Canvas
3. Advice from a student success coach
 - maria.navarro@deltacollege.edu or marisol.hernandez@deltacollege.edu
4. Help from a tutor

5. Advice from a counselor
