

Pagination

Here's the procedure in Google Docs. It's very similar in Microsoft Word and other software.

However, you don't want any numbering on the first page. So do this:

- Scroll to the first page of your essay. You will see the option

- Check the box:

- Hit the Esc (escape) button in the upper-left of your keyboard.

That's it! Your MLA pagination should now begin on page 2.
